Ban on Smoking is Lifted at Hollins

With the advent of smoking to Hollins campus, one of the most discussed and over-worked issues ever before the authorities and students was brought to a close. Miss Williamson presented the new rules to the Student Body at Convocation, January 14th, and the privileges went into effect the following morning.

The rules are: Students may smoke in the Keller, between the hours of 8:00 A. M. and 10:00 P. M., on the golf course, in the faculty homes and in the surrounding country, public highways excepted. Smoking is not permitted on campus, in the tea houses, in public places in Roanoke, or on the buses. Also, during class and other large parties in Keller, smoking will not be allowed.

The generosity of the concession to smoking cannot be ignored and the least that those who are enjoying the privilege can do is to use it wisely and to show their great appreciation by careful deference to the present rules.

Alumnae Present Play at the Little Theatre

February 20th, at 8:30 P. M., in the Little Theatre, the Triangle Chapter of the Hollins Alumnae Association will present the play, Beware of Widows, by Owen Davis. It is a three-act farce. The scene is laid on the deck of a house boat.

The play, which made a great success on Broadway, with Madge Kennedy in the leading role, will have Eleanor Wilson as lead at the Little Theatre. Playing opposite Miss Wilson will be Major James Walbach, who will be remembered for his excellent work in Tons of Money last year. Other members of the cast include Miss Dorothy Towles, Mrs. A. P. Jones, Miss Virginia Egolf, Mr. Donald Balger, Dr. F. LaMar Janney, Mr. C. H. Thompson, Mr. Ed Ould and Mr. Robert Carey. Miss Sully Hayward is acting as coach.

Tickets for the performance will be $1.00 and $1.50. They will be sold at Hollins sometime in the near future. Get your ticket early, as a large attendance is expected for what promises to be one of the most delightful entertainments of the year.

ALUMNAE COUNCIL TO HOLD FIRST MEETING

All Hollins is looking forward with great eagerness to the first meeting of the Alumnae Advisory Council, which will be held this year, February 20th through 22d, on the same week-end as Founder's Day. The Council was organized last spring and is composed of the President and Dean of the College and Faculty, Alumnae and student representatives. Fifteen of the thirty-three alumnae chapters are sending one of their members to the meeting, while Jessie Pollard, Betty Trenbath and Elizabeth Love are to represent the students.

Dr. Meta Glass, of Sweet Briar, will be honor guest at the Council dinner, Friday evening, and Professor Brand Blanshard, who will give the Founder's Day address, will speak on Honors Courses and Admissions.

A varied program, with social activities, discussions and talks, has been arranged:

Friday morning, February 20th—Registration (Alumnae may visit classes).

Friday, 1:30—General Session: Welcome, Miss Matty Cocke; Response, Mrs. Henry Lane Schmelz, President; The Council, Mrs. Schmelz; Adoption of the Constitution; Hollins Among the Colleges, Dr. Marguerite Hearsey, Professor of English; Hollins Students Among College Students, Eleanor Wilson, N. S. E. A. Representative.

Friday, 4:30—Tea.

Friday, 6:00—Dinner, Mrs. Schmelz presiding. Dr. Meta Glass, Some Phase of the Liberal Arts College for Women; Mrs. D. D. Hull, Trustees and the College.

Friday, 8:30—College Entertainment in the Little Theatre.

Saturday, 10:00—Founder's Day Exercise, Professor Brand Blanshard, Swarthmore College, Speaker.

Saturday, 11:15—Committee Meetings.

Saturday, 1:30—Informal General Session. Subject, Honors Courses, Admissions; Speaker, Professor Brand Blanshard.

Saturday, 3:00—Round Tables (each group to meet in a different place. Councilors will sign up for the subject which they wish to discuss and any other subjects desired may be discussed.)

Saturday, 5:00—President's Reception.

Saturday, 6:00—Founder's Day Banquet.

Saturday, 8:30—Coffee in the Drawing Room.

Saturday, 10:30—Senior Sing.

Sunday, 9:30-10:00—Report from Round Tables; Farewell, Sarah Middleton, President of Alumnae Association; Closing, Mrs. Schmelz.

Sunday, 1:00—Dinner.

The Council, it must be remembered, is wholly advisory in function, but it brings Alumnae opinion to bear on problems before the College and strengthens the tie between Hollins and its graduates.
